Documentation Requirements

Documentation for medical expenses required by the IRS includes a third-party receipt containing the following information:

- Date service was received or purchase made
- Description of service or item purchased
- Dollar amount (after insurance, if applicable)

Documentation for dependent care expenses required by the IRS includes a third party receipt containing the following information (please be advised if a receipt is unavailable a signature from the provider is sufficient):

- Incurred dates of service
- Dollar amount
- Name of day care provider

Unacceptable forms of documentation include the following:

- Provider statements that only indicate the amount paid, balance forward or previous balance
- Credit card receipts that only reflect a payment
- Bills for prepaid dependent care/medical expenses where services have not yet occurred

When submitting a receipt for a co-payment amount, please be sure the co-payment description is on the receipt. In some cases, you will need to ask for a receipt at the point of service. If "co-payment" is not clearly identified, have the provider write "co-payment" on the receipt and sign it.

Reimbursement Request Form

This form is for reimbursement of any out-of-pocket expenses. Documentation to substantiate purchases made with your Discovery Benefits debit card must be submitted with a copy of a Receipt Reminder or a Receipt and Substantiation Form.

Step 3: Participant Certification

To the best of my knowledge the provided information is complete and accurate. I certify that the requests I am submitting are eligible expenses as defined by the IRS and that I have not been previously reimbursed for these expenses nor am I seeking reimbursement from any other source. I also certify that if I am a California resident, my dependents meet the pre-PPACA tax dependent rules when requesting reimbursement for my dependents. I understand that Discovery Benefits, including its agents and employees, will not be held liable if I submit ineligible expenses for reimbursement. If submitting expenses for my Dependent Care Account, I have obtained or made reasonable efforts to obtain the provider's Tax ID (TIN) and I will include the TIN on IRS Form 2441 which I must attach to my federal income tax return. If there are any changes in the provided information, I understand it is my responsibility to notify Discovery Benefits. By submitting this form I certify the above.

I understand that I should retain a copy of all submitted documentation in the event of an IRS audit
