

CoreMedical Group Partners with NALTO Locum Tenens Association

Locum Tenens physician staffing and recruiting agency CoreMedical Group has joined NALTO, the National Association of Locum Tenens Organizations.

NALTO promotes sound business practices in the Locum Tenens physician recruitment industry, holding firms like CoreMedical Group to high standards covering relationships between clients, physician providers, and other locum tenens firms.

“Partnering with NALTO is important to Core, because it holds us to certain set of quality standards and integrity in the Locum Tenens market and adds value to our organization,” said Jami Leger, Physician Consultant Manager.

“Core has always modeled and conducted business in its other healthcare staffing divisions in the same manner. It’s just natural that our Locum Tenens division would be a member of NALTO, which promotes quality and integrity in the physician recruitment field,” Leger said.
